

Challenge Card

Tell the group who you think pays (in terms of resources, or consequences), and in what ways.

Challenge Card

Explain briefly to your fellow players what you think could be the effect on future generations.

Challenge Card

What do you think the media would make of all this?

Challenge Card

Are there any risks involved here? Think of a risk, tell the group, and ask two other players if they can think of another one.

Challenge Card

Imagine what your grandparents would say about this topic! Share it with the group.

Challenge Card

Is the group 'being polite' and not talking about a 'taboo' issue in relation to this subject? If so, say 'We're not talking about ...' and start the conversation.

Challenge Card

Does this have an impact on nature? Let the group know what you think.

Challenge Card

Express any feelings on a ethical environmental subject that you have not yet expressed to the group.

Challenge Card

Pick a story card. As the character on your story card, present to the group your views on this topic.

Challenge Card

Can we justify spending money on alternative energy research given the many other immediate needs in the world such as health care, hunger and human rights?

Challenge Card

Do you think that human needs are more important than the needs of those without a voice- nature, animals, embryos?

Challenge Card

Pick a Story Card and select one that is different from your own viewpoint. Tell the group how you think your own views are similar and different to the character.
